ARTICLE X
CONFLICT OF INTEREST POLICY

SECTION 1

The Board of Directors and its officers have an obligation to conduct business within guidelines that prohibit actual or potential conflicts of interest. An actual or potential conflict of interest occurs when a Director or an Officer is in a position to influence a decision that may result in a personal gain for the Director or Officer or for an immediate family member as a result of the Society’s business dealings. For the purposes of this policy, a Director has an interest in a proposed transaction if he/she has a financial interest in it in a material amount, or has a financial interest in any organization involved in the proposed transaction, or holds a position as Trustee, Director, or principal Officer in any such organization or receives any indirect remuneration or gifts or favors.

SECTION 2

If a Director or Officer has any influence on transactions involving purchases, contracts, or leases from which he/she or an immediate family member may gain financially in a material amount, he/she has a duty to disclose to the President or other Officer of the Board, the existence of any actual or potential conflict of interest.

SECTION 3

(A) If it is decided that a conflict of interest exists, the Board of Directors shall determine by a majority vote of the disinterested Directors whether the transaction is in the Society’s best interest and is fair and reasonable to the Society. The Board shall also make its decision as to whether to enter into the transaction or arrangement in any event.

(B) If the Board determines that the transaction is not in the Society’s best interest, members of the Board may explore an alternative arrangement which would not give rise to a conflict of interest.

(C) If the Board has reasonable cause to believe that a Director or Officer has failed to disclose actual or possible conflicts of interest, it shall inform the person of the basis for its belief and allow the person the opportunity to explain the alleged failure to disclose. Failure to disclose a conflict of interest may result in removal from the Board by a vote of the majority.
ARTICLE X (continued)

(D) Records of Proceedings shall contain the names of the persons who disclosed or otherwise were found to have a financial interest in connection with an actual or possible conflict of interest, the nature of that interest, names of persons involved in discussions, and votes relating to any resolution of said conflict.

(E) Statements shall be signed by each director, principal officer or committee member with governing board delegated powers which affirms that such person:
   i. Has received a copy of the conflicts of interest policy
   ii. Has read and understands the policy
   iii. Has agreed to comply with the policy, and
   iv. Understands that the Society is charitable and in order to maintain its federal tax exemption it must engage primarily in activities which accomplish one or more of its tax-exempt purposes.

These signed statements will be effective for the length of term and will become part of the recorded minutes.

(F) Periodic reviews shall be conducted to ensure that the Society operates in a manner consistent with charitable purposes and does not engage in activities that could jeopardize its tax-exempt status. Such reviews will include determination that compensation arrangements and benefits are reasonable and whether partnerships, joint ventures, and arrangements with management organizations conform to the Society’s written policies are properly recorded, and reflect reasonable investment or payments for goods and services and avoid any impermissible private benefit.

ARTICLE XI
WHISTLEBLOWER POLICY

SECTION 1

The Society requires that directors, officers, and members observe high standards of business and personal ethics in the conduct of their duties and responsibilities. As representatives of the Society they must practice honesty and integrity in fulfilling their responsibilities and comply with all applicable laws and regulations. This Whistleblower Policy is intended to encourage and enable members to raise serious concerns and seek resolution within the Society prior to seeking resolution outside the Society.

SECTION 2

It is the responsibility of all directors, officers, and members to comply with this code of ethics and to report violations or suspected violations in accordance with this Whistleblower Policy. Anyone filing a complaint concerning a violation or suspected violation must be acting in good faith and have reasonable grounds for believing the information disclosed indicates a violation. Any allegations that prove to have been made maliciously or knowingly to be false will be viewed as a serious disciplinary offense.

SECTION 3

No director, officer or member who in good faith reports a violation shall suffer harassment, retaliation or adverse consequence. Anyone who retaliates against someone who has reported a violation in good faith is subject to discipline up to and including termination of membership.

SECTION 4

The Board is responsible to promptly investigate and resolve all reported complaints and allegations concerning violations of the code of ethics. Reports of violations or suspected violations will be kept confidential to the extent possible. Appropriate corrective action will be taken if and as warranted by the investigation.
